MASTER U' BNP PARIBAS

Created in 2006 by the French University Sport Federation, the French Tennis Federation, in partnership with BNP Paribas "partner of all tennis", the Master'U BNP Paribas is the world event of university tennis.

This team event competition is an original formula, kind of mix between Fed Cup and Davis Cup, gathering 8 nations with 6 players (3 players and 3 players) For each confrontation, the teams play 7 matches : 2 women single matches, 2 men single matches, 1 ladies doubles, 1 men doubles and 1 mixed, decisive double in case of draw at the end of the first 6 matches.

For 2018 and 2019, the Auvergne Rhône-Alpes University Sport League, in partnership with the Auvergne Rhône-Alpes Tennis League, will organise the Master U'BNP Paribas, The competition will be held in the League Center at Seyssins, a city in the outskirts of Grenoble, capital of the Alps.

13th edition – from 30 November to 2 December 2018 in Grenoble

A student event

The Master'U BNP Paribas has for vocation to allow students to be totally integrated into its organization. It establishes an exceptional tool of formation, an event made " for students, by students ".

The Auvergne Rhône-Alpes University Sport League, in partnership with the University Grenoble Alpes, will allow some students to be in the heart of an international sport event whether it is to welcome teams, communication, live-scoring, translation, hostess, or the follow-up of the competition.

13th edition – from 30 November to 2 December 2018 in Grenoble

GRENOBLE – Host City

The ranking of the cities where it is good to study in France places Grenoble at the top (1st in 2016, 2nd in 2017). Sporting city focused on the mountain, Grenoble has more than 60,000 students at the Grenoble Alpes University (IDEX label in 2016), Grenoble School of Management, Grenoble INP, Political Science and School of Architecture.

A Metropole of 445,000 people including 161,000 for the city of Grenoble. Capital of the Alps, Grenoble has a strong environmental policy and the election of Eric Piolle in 2014 as the first Green Party mayor of a city of more than 100,000 people, reinforces the "green" image of the city.

The Master U' BNP Paribas will be held exactly in Seyssins, city of 7,000 inhabitants bordering Grenoble.

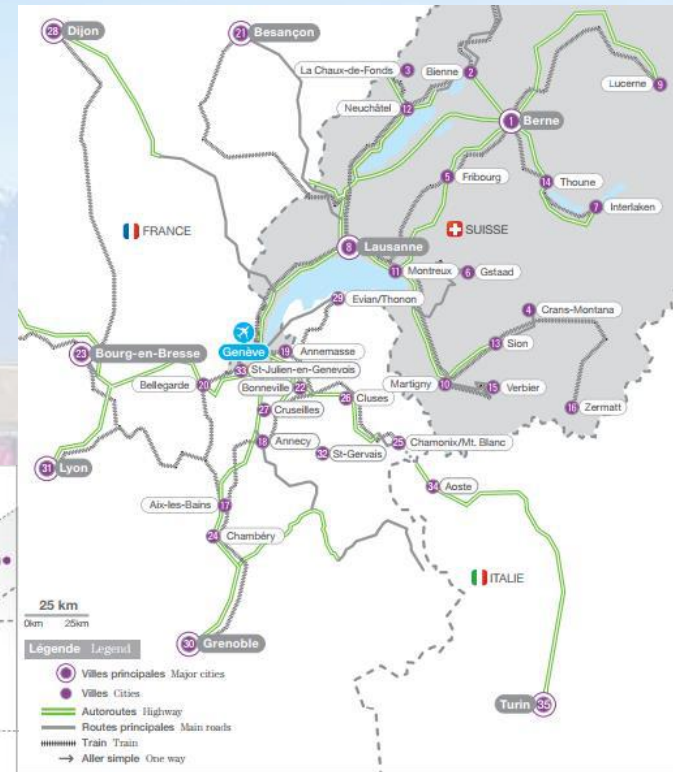

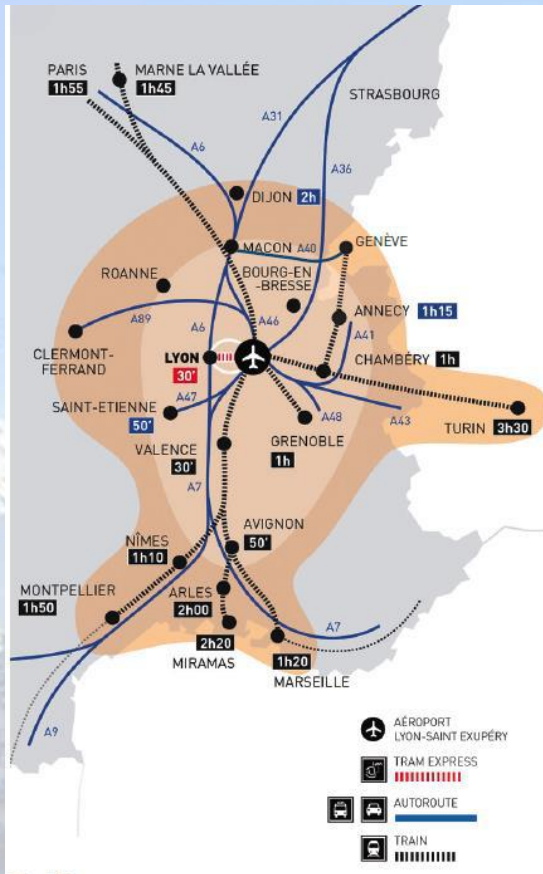

13th edition – from 30 November to 2 December 2018 in Grenoble
